

1. Introduction

This document informs Coaches, Judoka's and Audience regarding the information provision during the Tournament and its progress. Initially this document points-out the information sources during the tournament. In the third paragraph the information sources are listed by Tournament issues.

2. Information tools

a. JudoCoachApp ©® and JudoPlayerApp ©®

The JudoCoachApp provides coaches with the following listings of his/hers judoka's:

- i. Progress of weighing process.
- ii. Progress of ongoing games.
- iii. Time prediction and location of scheduled games.
- iv. Results of played games.

b. Judoka Participation Card

The card is provided after completion of the judoka's weighing process. It contains the final weighing, the allocated category of the judoka, a predicted start time of the category and finally: the location(s)/tatami(s) where the games of the allocated category will take place.

c. TV Displays Main Hall & Old Hall

- i. Four displays are situated in the Hall nr. 2. Each screen covers information for ongoing poules/participants on one or two tatamis.
- ii. A large display for general progress of the Hall nr. 2. is situated in the approach corridor to that hall and displays the progress on the tatami's.
- iii. Hall nr. 1 finally, has two screens for progress of the Final Tatami.

d. The screens display the following information:

- i. Category, poule and names of judoka's allocated to the respective tatami's;
- ii. Progress/results of the current ongoing poule on each tatami;
- iii. Listing of next scheduled games on each tatami.

e. Information point "Where do I need to be?"

One information point is situated in the corner of the Hall nr. 2., the other is at the entrance lounge. Judoka's can type in their name and find out their weighing time and, if their category is generated: scheduled games, a predicted timing and at which Tatami their games take place.

f. Award Ceremony beamer

The beamer is situated near the award ceremony location in the Final Hall. It displays the price winners of the ongoing award ceremony.
